

Ambassador Mark Regev

With over twenty-five years of experience in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, H. E. Mark Regev has played a key role representing the State of Israel.

As the Prime Minister's Advisor and International Spokesperson for over eight years, Ambassador Regev established himself as one of Israel's most recognised voices across the English-speaking world.

Ambassador Regev rose through the ranks of Israel's diplomatic corps, serving as Vice Consul in Hong Kong, and then as First Secretary in Beijing. Ambassador Regev went on to serve as Counsellor in Washington, and then as the Spokesperson for the Foreign Ministry in Jerusalem.

Ambassador Regev graduated from the University of Melbourne with a BA in Political Science and Modern History. In addition, he holds an MA in Political Science from the Hebrew University of Jerusalem, as well as a Master of Science in Management from Boston University. Before joining Israel's Foreign Service, Ambassador Regev lectured on International Relations and Strategy at the Israel Defence Forces' Staff College.

For his army service, Ambassador Regev served as a combat infantry soldier in the Nahal Brigade of the IDF.

Ambassador Regev is married to Vered, and they have three children.
