Evaluation of COL Eros Zaniboni

COL Eros Zaniboni was an International Fellow from Italy in the 46th class of the Israel National Defense College (2018-2019). He has completed all obligations and attained the title: Israel National Defense College Graduate. Additionally, COL Eros Zaniboni concluded all of his academic requirements, and received an MA in Political Science – National Security, from Haifa University. He wrote his final paper on the subject: "The F-35: innovative and strategic component of Israeli and Italian National Security".

COL Eros Zaniboni has been a valuable member of the class and has gained the respect and appreciation of staff and students alike. I thanked COL Eros Zaniboni and wished him all the best.

I hope he will continue to succeed in his future assignments and I am convinced that the added values and perspectives that he gained in Israel and at the INDC, will contribute to his future career in Italy.

Sincerely,
