Course Description:

Course Scope and Special Information
Effective 2010-01-15

Course Scope:

This course consist of instructional fundamentals in imparting the training technique of "Target Torque" acquired in the initial qualification course. Emphasis is on performance planning, maximum gross weight simulation and all its implications. How to use the power gauges as an objective measurement of a student's performance, knowing what factors influence a maneuver, and to what degree, are essential components in the instrution pilot course. Post maneuver analysis is critical in the process and each instructor pilot is challenged to correctly analyze cause and effect during each flight nameuver, with particulare attention to power expenditures, escape routes, and emergency procedures. The course consists of flight training during which the student IP will perform normal and terrain flight navigation, takeoffs and approaches to pinnacles, ridgelines, and confined areas in terrain varying from rolling hills to steep jagged cliffs with altitudes ranging from 6,500 feet PA to over 14,000 feet PA. Power management skills will be developed in this environment due to the lack of power available decreasing. Emphasis on common pilot errors through extensive role reversal will be reinforced to ensure the IP student is capable of accomplishing the high task saturation associated with this environment.

Special Information:

The U.S. Visa is the authority to travel to the United States during the valid period it has no relation to the period of stay in the United States. The Form I-94 is the Department of Homeland Security's Arrival Departure Record issued to the IMS. Rather than distributing a paper Form I-94, the IMS's passport will be scanned generating an electronic arrival record. The U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services USCIS will issue an automated Form I-94 to the IMS when they enter the United States at air or sea ports of entry and place an admission stamp on their travel document a paper version of the I-94 may be obtained at www.cbp.gov I94 . IMS arriving via ground transportation will receive a paper Form I-94 and the USCIS Inspector will write a date or "D S" duration of status on the Form I-94. This date, in conjunction with the ITO, forms the documentation that governs the IMS status in the United States. Each IMS is responsible for his her own travel documents. If there are any discrepancies IMS should contact his her embassy to correct the problem immediately. Only their embassy can change a passport. Mailing of passports should always be via (Registered Mail, Return Receipt Requested.+ All IMS are required to have minimum six 6 months remaining on their passport upon completion of training and returning to their country.

Course Description:

011-2C-F147 Description: This is a one week mountain flying course designed to give pilots an introduction to power management and mountain flying.

Power management mountain qualification courses consist of flight and academic training during which the student will acquire and practice the power management training technique. This is designed to enhance overall situational awareness, cockpit communication, crew coordination and ultimately, sound judgment and safety in this demanding environment. The training technique revolves around the simulation of maximum aircraft gross weight while performing enroute navigation, multiple recons, landings, and take-offs in rugged mountain terrain. The program is comprehensive, intense, and completely objective using aircraft power gauges as the measure of an individual's performance. In addition, the student acquires the knowledge and techniques required to operate in high density altitude and mountainous environments. Academic instruction includes flight techniques, communication and crew coordination, physiological factors, meteorological conditions, emergency procedures and wind/terrain analysis. Heavy emphasis is placed on performance planning and updating. The student will experience enroute altitudes and landing zones like pinnacles, ridgelines, rolling hills, confined areas, saddles, and jagged peaks at altitudes from 6,500' up to 14,000' PA.

Effective 2010-01-15

 Army

NGB HAATS- HIGH ALTITUDE TNG CTR
 GYPSUM, CO 81637

Course Description:

011-2C-F161 Description: This is a two week mountain flying course designed to give pilots a more solid foundation in power management and mountain flying. This course is required for the mountain instructor course and is highly recommended for pilots who routinely operate in mountainous environments.

Power management mountain qualification courses consist of flight and academic training during which the student will acquire and practice the power management training technique. This is designed to enhance overall situational awareness, cockpit communication, crew coordination and ultimately, sound judgment and safety in this demanding environment. The training technique revolves around the simulation of maximum aircraft gross weight while performing enroute navigation, multiple recons, landings, and take-offs in rugged mountain terrain. The program is comprehensive, intense, and completely objective using aircraft power gauges as the measure of an individual's performance. In addition, the student acquires the knowledge and techniques required to operate in high density altitude and mountainous environments. Academic instruction includes flight techniques, communication and crew coordination, physiological factors, meteorological conditions, emergency procedures and wind/terrain analysis. Heavy emphasis is placed on performance planning and updating. The student will experience enroute altitudes and landing zones like pinnacles, ridgelines, rolling hills, confined areas, saddles, and jagged peaks at altitudes from 6,500' up to 14,000' PA.

Course Scope:

Course consists of flight and academic instruction in Aircraft operations in mountainous terrain, landing zone sequence, meteorology, tabular performance planning, cross country flight, and high density altitude accident causes.

GYPSUM, CO 81637

Course Description:

Effective 2015-03-12

Course Scope:

This course consists of flight training during which the student will acquire new power management training techniques designed to enhance overall situational awareness, cockpit communication and coordination, and most importantly, the judgment process. These techniques revolve around the simulation of operating at maximum aircraft gross weight while performing multiple recons, pinnacle landings, ridgeline operations, takeoffs, and confined areas utilizing one million acres of rugged mountainous terrain varying from rolling hills to steep jagged cliffs with altitudes ranging from 6,500 feet PA to over 14,000 feet PA and at times utilizing portable oxygen equipment. Power management skills will be developed in this environment due to the lack of power available decreasing with temperature and altitude. This program is comprehensive, intense, and completely objective using the primary power gauges as the measure of an individual's and aircraft's performance. In addition, the student acquires the techniques necessary to operate in high density altitudes and mountainous environments. Academic instruction includes classroom training and flight techniques, communication coordination techniques, psychological and physiological factors, meteorological conditions, emergency procedures and wind terrain analysis. Heavy emphasis is placed on performance planning and continuous updating.

Course Description:

Accident investigation Board President Course.
Case by case basic.

Course Prerequisite Text:

1 Family members dependents accepted with coordination with SATFA and IMSO.
Students must make sure they have adequate medical insurance for themselves and their dependents. Medical care in the U.S. is very expensive.
Fort Rucker is unable to provide adequate life-cycle support for IMS dependents. The SCO can authorize dependents on an ITO only after obtaining IMSO concurrence and this is to be done solely on a case-by-case basis. IMS who elect to bring unauthorized dependents will do so at their own expense and these dependents must maintain self-sufficiency for the duration of their sponsor's U. S. Army sponsored training in CONUS. Additionally, these unauthorized dependents will not receive a U. S. Uniformed Services Identification and Privilege Card. If the IMSO authorizes the SCO to include IMS dependents on the ITO, then DSCA Policy Memorandum 10-39, 23 June 2010, the U. S. Army Supplement to DSCA Policy Memorandum 10-39, 2 September 2010, and the DSCA Policy Memorandum 11-32, 15 Aug 11, prevail. Prior to SCO including dependents on ITO line 12 a-b, they must first validate that the IMS has purchased proper, and sufficient healthcare coverage insurance if applicable. IMS whose authorized dependents arrive without proper healthcare coverage will not be issued a U.S. Common Access Card CAC. Additionally, these dependents will have a maximum of 10 working days in which to secure proper and sufficient healthcare coverage or obtain country indemnification via an ITO agreement. A copy of the healthcare coverage insurance policy is to be provided to the IMSO for review and approval. When it is confirmed that the policy includes proper and sufficient healthcare coverage, then the IMSO may proceed with issuing the U.S. Uniformed Services Identification and Privilege Card to the authorized dependents.

The SCO is required to provide the IMS dependent's healthcare insurance policy in English to the IMSO at the first CONUS training location not later than 16 days prior to IMS report date. The policy may be mailed to the IMSO, but must be received by the IMSO not later than 16 days prior to the report date to the first CONUS training location

IMSO will make every effort to accommodate and assist students, but staff overtime resources required for student airport transportation are limited. Worst case, taxi service is available and IMSO can assist in coordination.

Course Prerequisite Text:

1 Family members dependents accepted with coordination with SATFA and IMSO.

Students must make sure they have adequate medical insurance for themselves and their dependents. Medical care in the U.S. is very expensive.

Fort Rucker is unable to provide adequate life-cycle support for IMS dependents. The SCO can authorize dependents on an ITO only after obtaining IMSO concurrence and this is to be done solely on a case-by-case basis. IMS who elect to bring unauthorized dependents will do so at their own expense and these dependents must maintain self-sufficiency for the duration of their sponsor's U. S. Army sponsored training in CONUS. Additionally, these unauthorized dependents will not receive a U. S. Uniformed Services Identification and Privilege Card. If the IMSO authorizes the SCO to include IMS dependents on the ITO, then DSCA Policy Memorandum 10-39, 23 June 2010, the U. S. Army Supplement to DSCA Policy Memorandum 10-39, 2 September 2010, and the DSCA Policy Memorandum 11-32, 15 Aug 11, prevail. Prior to SCO including dependents on ITO line 12 a-b , they must first validate that the IMS has purchased proper, and sufficient healthcare coverage insurance if applicable . IMS whose authorized dependents arrive without proper healthcare coverage will not be issued a U.S. Common Access Card CAC . Additionally, these dependents will have a maximum of 10 working days in which to secure proper and sufficient healthcare coverage or obtain country indemnification via an ITO agreement. A copy of the healthcare coverage insurance policy is to be provided to the IMSO for review and approval. When it is confirmed that the policy includes proper and sufficient healthcare coverage, then the IMSO may proceed with issuing the U.S. Uniformed Services Identification and Privilege Card to the authorized dependents.

The SCO is required to provide the IMS dependent's healthcare insurance policy in English to the IMSO at the first CONUS training location not later than 16 days prior to IMS report date. The policy may be mailed to the IMSO, but must be received by the IMSO not later than 16 days prior to the report date to the first CONUS training location

-----Special Information----- All information provided is applicable to active Army and Reserve Component Commissioned Officers, Warrant Officers (WO) - (air and ground), Department of the Army Civilians, and Foreign Officers attending the ASOC. All officers holding an aeronautical designator (except Foreign Officers) must present documentation that they have a minimum of 50 hours pilot-in-command (PC) time (PC time not required for 151 WOs, and 150U UAS Personnel) and have completed the following computer based training prior to attendance: 1) AMMO 45 course through the Defense Ammunition Center; 2) the Commanders Safety Course; and 3) the Action Officer Course. Waivers to the 50-hour PC requirement must be submitted through command channels, endorsed by the RA/NGB/USAR components, and approved by the Director, Army Safety (CG, USACRC) prior to individuals being entered into ATRRS on 'Reserved' status. Students who attend on a waiver will receive a certificate of attendance at graduation, not an ASOC graduation certificate. The term waiver in this instance does not negate the 50-hour requirement, but if granted allows an individual to attend the ASOC as requested and receive a Certificate of Completion. For those select individuals who are granted a waiver to attend are expected to meet the 50-hour PC requirement as soon as possible immediately following completion of the ASOC. In fact, individuals granted a waiver to attend the ASOC will not be graduated in ATRRS nor receive the Additional Skill Identifier (ASI) / Skill Qualification Identifier (SQI) and Graduation Certificate until confirmation that they have completed the 50-hour PC requirement has been received by this office. We will accept a memorandum from the Commander or a DA 759 closeout with the PC time on it as verification of completing this requirement. iM UST COMPLETE COMMANDERS SAFETY OFFICER COURSE PRIOR TO START.i( HTTPS://WWW.AIMSRDL.ATSC.ARMY.MIL/SECURED/ACCP\_TOP.HTM)iA CTION OFFICER COURSE (HTTPS://WWW.AIMSRDL.ATSC.ARMY.MIL/SECURED/ACCP\_TOP.HTM) iAMMO 45 (https://www3.dac.army.mil/AS/ammo\_45\_dl.html) iG o to <https://crc.army.mil - training> for more information.

Army

EASTERN AVIATION TRAINING SITE
Annville, PA 17003-5002

Course Description:

The Aviation Combined Arms Tactical Trainer (AVCATT) is a mobile, transportable, multi-station virtual simulation device designed to support unit collective and combined arms training. AVCATT provides six man modules, re-configurable to any combination of attack, reconnaissance, lift and/or cargo helicopters. AVCATT is a system that provides collective/combined arms training for aircrews and battle staff using user directed scenarios. AVCATT provides simulated engagement thru Semi-Automated Forces. AVCATT is interoperable with a variety of simulators including the Close Combat Tactical Trainer (CCTT), the Virtual Combat Convoy Trainer (VCCT) and the CCTT Reconfigurable Vehicle. Recommended minimum crews 3, maximum crews 6 plus battle staff.

IMSO 59.88 per hour
Supplies 1.01 per hour
Total 61.89 (for your purposes 62.00)

The AVCATT should be scheduled for 8 hours (two iterations) If a country wants to do 8 hours then the next day do 4 hours that will work. The minimum hours scheduled should be 8 hours then add 4 hour increments as necessary.

Course Prerequisite Text:

Int'l Notes: This MASL is used when programming the Aviation Combined Arms Tactical Trainer (AVCATT). Program one WCN at the full cost per day and all others at no tuition cost. The AVCATT is scheduled per day with up to 6 crews and battle staff. Program School Cost and STRICOM Cost for each day of training. Dependents are not authorized for personnel attending courses at the Eastern Army National Guard Aviation Training Site, Fort Indiantown Gap. Fort Indiantown Gap does not have family quarters. Effective 2015-11-02
Course Scope:

Purpose: Educate Infantry and Armor NCOs to be adaptive leaders, critical and creative thinkers, armed with the technical, tactical, administrative, and logistical skills necessary to serve successfully at the platoon and company level. Prepare NCOs with a principle understanding of the duties of a First Sergeant and a battle staff NCO. Scope: The Maneuver Senior Leader Course (MSLC) is a 7-week two phased course. Phase 1 is conducted by combining the two CMFs (11/19) in the same learning environment. Phase 2 is the MOS specific phase, with each MOS having its own Phase 2. At the end of Phase 2 all MOSs will be combined again in a final culminating learning event. Maneuver SLC integrates Adaptive Soldier and Leader Training and Education (ASLTE) principles within an ASLTE learning environment as envisioned by the Army Learning Model (ALM). It integrates 21st Century Soldier Competencies into learning content and converts most classroom experiences into collaborative problem solving events led by facilitators (vice instructors) who engage learners to think and understand the relevance and context of what they learn. The integration of ASLTE allows Soldiers' training and education to move beyond the minimalist approach to standards-based training and achieve the desired excellence and mastery of training and education in doctrine. The concept of visualizing training purpose and goals is applied and conditions are promoted which allow Soldiers to demonstrate agility, show initiative and creativity, and grow confident in ambiguity while in a climate that encourages freedom to try different solutions to challenging problems (how to think, not what to think). ASLTE integration will occur through numerous operational tryouts (pilots) affecting select lesson plans such as, Virtual Battlespace 2 (VBS2) scenarios, Blackboard, Close Combat Tactical Trainer (CCTT), and the Field Training Exercise (FTX). Course Outcomes: 1. Analyze situations for informed decision-making. 2. Communicate written and oral orders based on Army Doctrine. 3. Provide mentorship to subordinate personnel. 4. Implement tactics, techniques, and procedures relevant to the operating environment. 5. Perform as a Platoon Sergeant as part of a combined arms element. In support of TR 350-10 and the Army Learning Model, Maneuver Senior Leader Course (MSLC) both AA and RC, has redesigned the culminating event to include 44.4 hours of continuous operations for FY15 and out. The culminating event includes pre training utilizing a FTX, situation-based CCTT, and VBS2 gaming scenarios. This design increases rigor, incorporates blended learning methodologies within the current resource environment, and includes comprehensive leadership evaluations in a tactical environment.

Highly recommend that the IMSO office be contacted 2 months prior to arrival to provide additional information about the course requirements. All IMS will undergo a physical exam upon arrival. There is SCO must ensure the student has all medical requirements and physical exams completed prior to departure from home nation. PHYSICAL TRAINING - all courses require mandatory physical training every duty day, including some weekends. No international soldiers will be excused from physical training, for any reason. A HIGH level of physical fitness is required of every international student. A VERY HIGH level of physical fitness is required for Pre-Ranger, Ranger, and Reconnaissance and Long Range Surveillance Course. ARMY PHYSICAL FITNESS TEST The APFT is a graduation requirement for almost all courses. SCO should advise and prepare the soldier to achieve at least a 70 percent, according to his/her age group, in each event push up, sit up, and 2 mile run. The APFT is not just a graduation requirement but in many instances, a means of measuring the individual's probability of becoming a heat casualty. If the IMS does not receive at least 50 points in each event standards are enforced the IMS will not be allowed into the course for safety purposes. Please make sure that your IMS is fit for class upon arrival. You can find the APFT standards and point scale in the U.S. Army's FM 21-20.

PARACHUTE OPERATIONS IMS are required to participate in parachute jumps at Airborne and Jumpmaster school. All IMS participating in Airborne Operations must have their ITO state "IMS is authorized to participate in hazardous duty training. IMS is parachute qualified and authorized to participate in jumps from U.S. aircraft."

NO family housing available on Fort Benning for international military students who are accompanied by family members for training. NOTE IMET FUNDED TRAINING - IAW Travel and Living Allowances TLA Policy Guidance for Security Cooperation Training Programs P3 Policy 03-01, Para 3B 12, dtd April 2003 effective 1 Oct 03. If bachelor government or contracted quarters are available and dependents are not encouraged authorized, but the IMS chooses to bring his dependents and resides off base post, the Living Allowances Rate is 0 ZERO. IAW with the DoD Policy Guidance, Para C 6, Fort Benning is NOT listed as a training location that encourages IMS to bring their dependents. Ensure students for whom the USG pays a living allowance understand the impact of the above policy. Please note that "authorized" is NOT the same as "encouraged."

FAMILY MEMBERS DEPENDENTS NOT AUTHORIZED PHYSICAL FITNESS TRAINING IS MANATORY. ARMOR BASIC OFFICER LEADER COURSE This course is appropriate for international students who are armor junior officers, serving in positions such as platoon leader. Armor BOLC trains newly commissioned US 2nd Lieutenants to serve as Armor Platoon Leaders. WARNING without medical requirements and packing list, students may not enroll in course. Fort Benning IMSO does not always have time resources to correct deficiencies in medical records and required equipment. All students attending ABOLC must adhere to the Army Height and Weight Standards as outlined in AR 600-9. Students who arrive for ABOLC and are not within Army Height Weight standards will be recommended for drop from the course. 88 WARNING - All students US and International reporting to ABOLC must follow the appearance and grooming standards laid out in AR 670-1 Chapters 1-7 and 1-8. Excerpts from AR 670-1 are detailed below, this is not the entire regulation, just the important highlights Chapter 1-78b. Exceptions to appearance standards based on religious practices.8 3 Personal grooming. Hair and grooming practices are governed by paragraph 1v8 of this regulation, and exceptions or accommodations based on religious practices will not be granted. Chapter 1-88 2 Male haircuts will conform to the following standards.8 a The hair on top of the head must be neatly groomed. The length and bulk of the hair may not be excessive or present a ragged, unkempt, or extreme appearance. The hair must present a tapered appearance. A tapered appearance is one where the outline of the soldier s hair conforms to the shape of the head, curving inward to the natural termination point at the base of the neck. When the hair is combed, it will not fall over the ears or eyebrows, or touch the collar, except for the closely cut hair at the back of the neck. The block-cut fullness in the back is permitted to a moderate degree, as long as the tapered look is maintained.8 b Males will keep sideburns neatly trimmed. Sideburns may not be flared the base of the sideburn will be a clean-shaven, horizontal line. Sideburns will not extend below the lowest part of the exterior ear opening.8 c Males will keep their face clean-shaven when in uniform or in civilian clothes on duty. Mustaches are permitted if worn, males will keep mustaches neatly trimmed, tapered, and tidy.88WARNING All US Army MCoE require mandatory physical training. Students who arrive in poor physical condition greatly increase their risk of injury and or course failure. Students who fail to meet graduation requirements at any time throughout course may or may not be offered a chance to recycle. International students who complete the course but fail to meet graduation requirements may receive a Certificate of Completion or a Certificate of Attendance. These decisions recycle, type of certificate lie with the ABOLC Battalion Commander. Graduation requirements physical and academic are listed below Physical fitness and endurance. Army Physical Fitness Test APFT IAW FM 7-22, the graduation requirement for the course is a score of 180 points minimum 60 points in each event on the final Army Physical Fitness Test APFT . Students will be given a diagnostic practice APFT at the start of the course. It is highly recommended they meet the minimum standards at that time, as there is very little time to improve thier PT score during the 16 week course. Students cannot miss more than 8 hours of training. Absence from 8 hours of training or more will result in a recycle. This includes being unable to participate in training due to medical absence or restrictions. SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS Students must arrive in good physical condition. Daily physical training, lasting 90 minutes, occurs 5 to 6 mornings per week. Additional physical training will occur throughout the day. Students will carry heavy loads 30 kg over distances up to 12 miles. Ability to comprehend spoken English slang is more important than technical writing and reading. Students must prepare and deliver simple operations orders for rifle platoons. A laptop computer is not required or necessary. MCoE does not discriminate for any reason religion, race, nationality, etc but for safety concerns if students are potentially going to be observing stringent religious practices that would affect hydration or nutrition, for their own physical well being and so they can meet the course standards, it may be advisable to reschedule a student for a later date, free of such observances. FA BASIC OFFICER LEADER-BRANCH

FIELD ARTILLERY SCHOOL
Fort Sill, OK 73503

Course Description:

Effective 2016-03-25

Course Scope:

Presenting, developing, and refining basic skills needed by all Field Artillery officers. Course consists of three blocks of instruction that all lieutenants receive in Platoon Leader, Fire Support, and Fire Direction skills. Course has weapons system training on Light/Towed artillery systems.

BOLC B Outcomes:

- (1) The Field Artillery Lieutenant has the ability to execute, plan and integrate joint fires at the Company level in the performance of duties as a Company Fire Support Officer.
- (2) The Field Artillery Lieutenant has the ability to perform duties as Battery Fire Direction Officer.
- (3) The Field Artillery Lieutenant has the ability to perform duties as Platoon Leader in a Field Artillery Battalion.

Special Information:

The integration of JFO training and certification within the FA BOLC-B and the resources required to support this mission is the top priority of the Field Artillery Commandant. The current operational environment and lessons learned in over a decade of war clearly mandates the requirement that all FA lieutenants must be certified as JFOs. The changes to the FA BOLC-B captured in this POI will accomplish this. Without these changes, commanders in the field will continue to have Fire Support positions requiring JFO Certification filled by FA lieutenants who are not JFO Certified. Our current ability to train and provide JFO qualified lieutenants to the operational forces does not account for junior officer career progression, short tour assignments and intra-post transfers. Gaps currently exist whereby not all Company Fire Support Officer (FSO) positions coded as Additional Skill Identifier (ASI), L7 (JFO) are consistently filled. This initiative will ensure that every FA BOLC-B graduate will be fully trained in all JFO tasks and possess the ability to integrate those skills in fire support planning and execution.

FA Lieutenants who graduate BOLC-B after the course is accredited for JFO Certification are not able to nor required to attend the 2ESIL7/250-ASIL7, Joint Fires Observer course.

13A BOLC-B Special Information: GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS (Subject to provisions of TRADOC Regulation 350-6.) NOTE: All High Physical Demand Task training specified below, is required for graduation, and will be made up if missed, and must be recorded on the Individual Physical Demands Test Sheet. ORDNANCE BASIC OFFICER LEADER-BRANCH
Army

ALU - Leader Courses
Fort Lee, VA 23801

Course Description:

Effective 2014-11-08

Course Scope:

OD BOLC consists of lessons required for the AOC 91A and presents them utilizing the Army Learning Model 2015 (ALM 2015), OD BOLC is communicated in seven modules. Module A (Reception), module B (Tactical Operations), and module C (Officership) refine and develop learning outcomes introduced in BOLC-A represented by the Common Core Task List (CCTL) to demonstrate proficiency in Initial Military Training (IMT). The Basic Officer Leader Development Field Training Exercise (BOLD FTX) is the culminating event for common core training. BOLD FTX is a four day field training exercise where students participate in a Decisive Action Training Environment (DATE) scenario-driven training exercise to evaluate Troop Leading Procedures and Movement planning through execution. The BOLD FTX is planned and executed at Fort Lee.

Ordnance officers then transition into module D (Logistic Operations) to combine Critical Task List (CTL) instruction and Logistic Operations instruction focused to the junior officers' first unit of assignment. The instruction received is critical to the Ordnance officer for a holistic approach to sustainment operations and understanding the common challenges faced by logistic officers in the operational environment. The final transition for the Ordnance officer is to progress through modules E (Ammunition Management), module F (Maintenance Management), and module G (Transitions), designed to capture the core competencies of the Ordnance officer as the functional portion of the course. The Global Combat Support System-Army (GCSS-A) is the information system for total contribution to logistics transformation at the tactical levels of the Army. GCSS-A Plant Maintenance Management Module of 40 hours of academic time is instructed in the classroom environment of the Ordnance Basic Officer Leader Course and replaces the time allotted for the previous SAMS-E instruction.

Critical tasks are trained in previous modules of the course, logistic operations; moreover the design of the course establishes modules E and F to be executed utilizing the model and influences of the Decisive Action Training Environment (DATE) trained at the Combined Training Centers (CTC). Functional proficiency and competence are at the core of the instruction and evaluation process developed in this scenario driven training events. Each module listed for execution plays a crucial role in the development of the ordnance officer. Officers will complete and graduate OD BOLC, having addressed all of the learning outcomes listed in the CCTL and the proponent CTL, as core competencies of the officer.

Special Information:

Blackboard is required for all students attending Ordnance BOLC as the primary use for peer instruction and development through discussion post, study group and homework assignments given during the course, reinforcement training and course resources found in the form of presentations or website links. Ordnance BOLC is delivered in a two courses hosted on Blackboard labeled, "Ordnance Basic Officer Leader Course" and "907C GCSS-Army 2014 OD BOLC". The required course instruction is hosted on the Blackboard site during academic time for "GCSS Army OD BOLC", which will be accessed the week in which this training is selected to begin and runs concurrently with the primary course, "Ordnance Basic Officer Leader Course". During the first week of in-processing it will be critical to access Blackboard to establish a user profile and enroll in the primary course. Students will receive the access code from the instructor to complete the Blackboard enrollment process for the initial course and the GCSS Army training running concurrently.

GCSS-Army instruction delivered during the Ordnance Basic Officer Leader Course requires additional web-based training to be completed prior to GCSS Army instruction in the course, accessed through the GCSS-Army Training and Certification (GTRAC) system at <http://gcss.army.mil/GTRAC>; for additional information, please contact GCSS-Army Training Help Desk at GCSSArmyTraining@ngc.com to obtain a User Guide containing registration instructions and other course information.

This Web-Based Training (WBT) is a critical part of the instruction and builds on overall understanding and functionality of the information system. The 40 hours of Academic time in OD BOLC dedicated to GCSS Army instruction rely on the completion of this requisite training. The course focus of training for GCSS Army is directed toward the learning module of Plant Maintenance Management. The certificate of completion for the requisite WBT training will be submitted to the class assigned TAC officer.

QUARTERMASTER BASIC OFFICER LEADER-BRANCH

Army

ALU - Leader Courses

Fort Lee, VA 23801

Course Description:

Effective 2015-11-01

Course Scope:

The Quartermaster Basic Officer Leader Course (QM BOLC-B) prepares Quartermaster lieutenants for assignment to CMF 92 coded platoon leader positions by providing training in common unit management tasks, Petroleum and Water Operations, Subsistence, Aerial Delivery and Field Services, Mortuary Affairs, STAMIS and Warehouse training, LOGPAC/Combat Logistics Patrol Operations, and Operational Environment with its associated lessons learned from the Global War on Terrorism.

Special Information:

FBCB2 is a "US only system". This means that foreign military students will be given an alternate block of instruction during this phase of training.

a. ENVIRONMENTAL: AR 200-1 delineates TRADOC responsibilities to integrate environmental requirements across DOTMLPF and ensure all training procedures, training manuals, and training doctrine include sound environmental practices and considerations. The Army's environmental vision is to be a national leader in environmental and natural resource stewardship for present and future generations as an integral part of all Army missions. This Program of Instruction meets this standard.

b. SAFETY: Accidents are an unacceptable impediment to Army missions, readiness, morale, and resources. Decision makers at every level will employ risk management approaches to effectively preclude unacceptable risk to the safety of personnel and property affiliated with this course.

c. OPERATIONAL ENVIRONMENT. The learning objectives in Army training must comply with current Joint, Army, and Branch doctrine regarding the Operational Environment and Opposing Force (OPFOR) scenarios. This Program of Instruction (POI) addresses this principle and incorporates current doctrine and lessons learned at the appropriate level, divesting of obsolescence, and implementing full spectrum operations in the OE in classrooms and training exercises.

d. MEDICAL SUPPORT TO TRAINING. Installation commanders and school commandants will assess and certify the adequacy of medical support to training at least annually. This responsibility is not delegable. Installation commanders and school commandants conducting high risk training shall rehearse their medical support (casualty response, evacuation, and treatment) plan at least annually, focused on responding to a training catastrophe. This Program of Instruction complies with the intent of the Army's Medical Support to Training policy.

Course Scope:

1. The primary mission of the SDM is to deploy as a member of the rifle squad. The SDM is a vital member of his individual squad and not a squad sniper. He fires and maneuvers with this squad and performs all of the duties of the standard rifleman. The SDM has neither the equipment nor training to operate individually or in a small team to engage targets at extended ranges with precision fire.
2. The secondary mission of the SDM is to engage key targets from 100 to 550 meters with effective, well-aimed fires using the standard weapon system and standard ammunition. He may or may not be equipped with an optic. Therefore the SDM must possess a thorough understanding and master of the fundamentals of rifle marksmanship as well as ballistics, elevation and windage hold-off, sight manipulation, and range estimation.
3. The SDM course will provide the squad with a designated marksman that has been trained to engage targets from 100 to 550 meters with and without optics. The SDM will operate and maneuver as a rifleman, but will have the added responsibility of engaging targets with effective, well-aimed fire out to 550 meters. The SDM can also be used to help direct the fire of other squad members into enemy positions. Due to the increased skill level required for his position, the SDM must maintain a high level of proficiency through continued training of the required skills. The SDM graduate will return to his/her unit to use the "Train the Trainer" concept and train additional SDMs.
4. The platoon sergeant and squad leaders must take special consideration in selecting the SDM. The SDM must have a solid marksmanship performance, must have a clear understanding of the fundamentals, and must be able to apply these fundamentals consistently during dry-fire and live-fire training. Even though the SDM in the field will be the junior enlisted, the immediate supervisor must know the capabilities of the SDM. Selected soldiers must bring a copy of their last M16 series qualification scorecard showing a qualification of at least Sharpshooter. Selected soldiers must be in the pay grade of E-2 through E-7 and O-1 through O-2. The SDMC is listed in the ATRRS system under School Code 1029 and course number MTC-005. All applications must be made through the ATRRS system. This course is conducted by the National Guard Marksmanship Training Center (NGMTC) at Camp Joseph T. Robinson, North Little Rock, Arkansas and accepts up to 24 students per class.
5. Students must bring the following items:

  - b. Small calculator for Range Estimation
  - c. Canteen (or hydration system).
  - d. Patrol Cap
  - e. Wet/cold weather gear

Special Information:

C. Special Notes:

1. All items listed on the packing list for each course (see NWTC website <http://www.wainwright.army.mil/nwtc>) will be inspected on day zero for accountability and serviceability. Students arriving with unserviceable or missing equipment will be required to obtain the equipment prior to departing for Black Rapids Training Site or will be required to return to home station. NWTC does not have a supply system to DX or replace missing equipment.
2. Absolutely no personal climbing equipment (harness, carabiners etc.) will be used during BMMC, ACC or MWOC. Unit issued climbing equipment (HAMK) may be used but will be inspected by NWTC personnel first. Unit issued snowshoes, skis and ski poles may be used during winter courses.

D. Preparation for BMMC:

1. Recommendations for academic and physical pre-course preparation can be found on the NWTC web site at <http://www.wainwright.army.mil/nwtc/>.
2. All students should view/study the knot tying videos at <http://www.wainwright.army.mil/nwtc/Knot-Tying.htm> prior to attending course. This is essential to ensuring students do not fall behind early in the course. Students should know how to tie these knots on command prior to arrival at the course. Prospective students can sign out rope from TSC or can use 550 cord, etc. as a training aid.
3. You must show up to the BMMC in excellent physical condition and mentally prepared for long days that include a lot of information. Some recommendations for preparation include:
  - a. Prepare physically. You may be surprised by the physical demands of the course. The physical requirements require you to travel moderate distances with a rucksack (up to 10 km with 60 lbs) over difficult terrain, often under inclement weather conditions. If you are not prepared physically, you will fall behind in learning the new skills required for the course. Ensure you break-in your boots prior to the course. Conduct foot marches in hilly or mountainous terrain with a 45 pound rucksack 2-3 times per week. Short intense workouts with body weight or light weights 4-6 times per week increase all aspects of fitness. In the first couple days of the course, students will conduct long movements up mountainous terrain with a 45 lb rucksack that can be extremely challenging to those who do not come prepared..
  - b. Prepare mentally: You are required to learn a lot of information and new skills in a relatively short period of time. Download the student handout (<http://www.wainwright.army.mil/nwtc/bmc.htm>) prior to the course. Familiarize yourself with the entire manual - scroll through the document for about two hours and read areas that interest you. Learn the rope terms and as many of the knots as you can prior to the course. Illustrated methods for tying many of these knots are located at <http://www.animatedknots.com/> . You should also review basic land navigation principles - plotting a point on a map, determining elevation on a map, terrain features, etc.

No dependent travel is authorized. Please refer to the site notes for any questions or contact the IMSO. This is a physically demanding course and recommend the student prepares prior to the course with a physical fitness program.

C. Special Notes:

1. All items listed on the packing list for each course (see NWTC website <http://www.wainwright.army.mil/nwtc>) will be inspected on day zero for accountability and serviceability. Students arriving with unserviceable or missing equipment will be required to obtain the equipment prior to departing for Black Rapids Training Site or will be required to return to home station. NWTC does not have a supply system to DX or replace missing equipment.

2. Absolutely no personal climbing equipment (harness, carabiners etc.) will be used during BMMC, ACC or MWOC. Unit issued climbing equipment (HAMK) may be used but will be inspected by NWTC personnel first. Unit issued snowshoes, skis and ski poles may be used during winter courses.

D. Preparation for MWOC:

1. Recommendations for academic and physical pre-course preparation can be found on the NWTC web site at <http://www.wainwright.army.mil/nwtc/>.

2. You must show up to the MWOC in excellent physical condition and mentally prepared for long days that include a lot of information. Some recommendations for preparation include:

a. Prepare physically. You may be surprised by the physical demands of the course. The physical requirements require you to travel moderate distances with a rucksack (up to 10 km with 60 lbs) over difficult terrain, often under inclement weather conditions. If you are not prepared physically, you will fall behind in learning the new skills required for the course. Ensure you break-in your boots prior to the course. Conduct foot marches in hilly or mountainous terrain with a 45 pound rucksack 2-3 times per week. Short intense workouts with body weight or light weights 4-6 times per week increase all aspects of fitness.

b. Prepare mentally: You are required to learn a lot of information and new skills in a relatively short period of time. Download the student handout (<http://www.wainwright.army.mil/nwtc/mwoc.html>) prior to the course. Familiarize yourself with the entire manual - scroll through the document for about two hours and read areas that interest you. You should also review basic land navigation principles - plotting a point on a map, determining elevation on a map, terrain features, etc.

Course Prerequisite Text:

No dependent travel is authorized. Please refer to the site notes for any questions or contact the IMSO. This is a physically demanding course and recommend the student prepares prior to the course with a physical fitness program.

ARMOR CREWMAN ALC
Army

NCO ACADEMY - INFANTRY
Fort Benning, GA 31905

Course Description:

Effective 2015-07-10

Course Scope:

Armor Crewman ALC incorporates the new Army Learning Model (ALM) supporting outcomes-based methodology. It integrates 21st Century Soldier Competencies into learning content and converts most classroom experiences into collaborative problem solving events led by facilitators (vice instructors) who engage learners to think and understand the relevance and context of what they learn. The incorporation of ALM methods allows the Armor Crewman's training and education to move beyond the minimalist approach to standards-based training and achieve the desired excellence and mastery of training doctrine. The concept of visualizing training purpose and goals is applied and conditions are promoted which allow Soldiers to demonstrate agility, show initiative and creativity, and grow confident in ambiguity while in a climate that encourages freedom to try different solutions to challenging problems (how to think, not what to think). ALM initiatives are incorporated in the course through the use of VBS3 scenarios, Blackboard, simulation / simulator strategies, and a Field Training Exercise (FTX). Course Outcomes: Produce an NCOES graduate that demonstrates... Understands skill level 4 Armor Crewman duties Sound character, intellect, creates a presence, is committed to the Army profession and is grounded in current doctrine Leader presence as characterized by mental, physical and emotional readiness / resilience Intellect through mastery of troop leading procedures, effective communication and the ability to solve complex problems through creative thinking Tactical and technical competence (effectively employ a tank section utilizing all organic assets) Understanding human nature and the ability to teach, coach and mentor subordinates to accomplish the mission Understanding of how to train a section to win; leadership by example Understanding of Army supply discipline and accountability, Army programs and administrative systems 19K ALC Culminating Event (TR 350-10): AA/RC Armor Crewman ALC has redesigned the culminating event to include 107/89 hours of continuous operations for FY16 and out. The culminating event includes pre training utilizing the VBS3 gaming engine, a four day FTX and situation-based CCTT scenarios. This design increases rigor, incorporates blended learning methodologies within the current resource environment, and includes comprehensive leadership evaluations in a tactical environment.

Course Description:

MasIID	Course Number / Title	CSec	Dur	LOC	ECL	ECL Code	OPI	TOEFL	EIMET	GRE	Penalty
--------	-----------------------	------	-----	-----	-----	----------	-----	-------	-------	-----	---------

Effective 2018-03-07

Course Scope:

PURPOSE: Train noncommissioned officers on advanced universal gunnery methodologies, gunnery training with a focus on vehicle mounted machine gun weapons systems, and the planning and implementation of gunnery training programs.

SCOPE: Master Gunner Common Core is taught in 29 days in four modules:

DIRECT FIRE AND WEAPONS TRAINING: Trains the direct fire engagement progress to provide a standardized method of engagement for weapons and platforms on the battlefield. This method allows Soldiers and leaders to maximize the effects of lethal fires against the enemy while reducing or eliminating the effects of fires on friendly or neutral personnel, equipment, or facilities. Trains maintenance procedures used to identify and troubleshoot complex malfunctions that occur during the firing of M240, M2, and MK19 machine guns. AMMUNITION AND BALLISTICS: Trains the ability to identify, classify, and forecast direct fire ammunitions that will enable Soldiers to manage ammunition allotments and training requirements at the Battalion level. Trains atmospheric effects on rounds due to nonstandard conditions to increase probability of first round impacts on target. Discusses lethality capabilities of all current and future ammunitions against various enemy threats encountered in the operational environment. Develops surface danger zones and verifies live fire training is being conducted IAW Installation and DOD regulations. GUNNERY TRAINING MANAGEMENT: Develops gunnery programs that sustain and improve unit gunnery proficiency training based on the Commander's intent and the Commander's assessment of unit's strong and weak areas. The Gunnery Program provides supervised decentralized training to include but not limited to key collective tasks, Warfighting Skills, preliminary gunnery training and integration of training devices and simulations, individual and crew-served weapon training and qualification. The emphasis on gunnery standards focuses a unit's direct fire lethality in combat operations to build and maintain ready units conducting unified land operations for Combatant Commanders as outlined in ADP 7-0. UNIT TRAINING PLAN: Develops a mounted machine gun company-level unit training plan. Soldiers conduct in-progress reviews throughout the course to ensure they are covering all resources and prerequisites required for a crew qualification. The course culminates with a briefing of the unit training plan they designed to a panel of simulated Battalion staff.

COURSE OUTCOMES:

- Demonstrate knowledge in direct fire procedures and identify procedural errors that violate principles of direct fire.
- Demonstrate expertise in troubleshooting complex machine gun malfunctions.
- Demonstrate knowledge in identifying procedures, duties, and responsibilities for planning and establishing both permanent and temporary live-fire ranges and tactical courses.
- Demonstrate expertise in developing scenarios and UTP for unit gunnery program that sustains and improves unit combat gunnery proficiency within the progressive training model.
- Demonstrates knowledge and ability to advise the Commander on weapon and ammunition capabilities to best employ assets organic to the organization as well as enemy vehicle capabilities.

The Basic Leader Course (BLC) is branch immaterial. The conduct of the course takes place in an NCO Academy non-live-in environment in accordance with the small group instruction process. It consists of minimal classroom dynamics and practical application with an intense field training environment that involves hands-on, performance-oriented training. The course graduates leave equipped with standards-based, performance-oriented, battle-focused training that supports squad level operations. It provides the Army with a leader who can visualize, describe, and execute squad level operations in varied operational environments. It is a leader course that produces a predictive, adaptive, and innovative combat leader capable of leading Soldiers in any situation. The instructional design and methods of delivery consists of face-to-face instruction, learner-centered outcomes, based on today's contemporary operational environment, and used to reinforce all small unit tactics, techniques, and procedures. The course incorporates recent lessons learned, 9 battle drills, 39 warrior tasks with the inclusion of weapons immersion, a 36-hour situational training exercise (STX), and an evaluated Land Navigation Course. The STX centers on competency, battle focused combat scenarios, and troop-leading procedures. Evaluation centers on their ability to demonstrate troop-leading procedures in current threat-based scenarios that will enhance their 360-degree assessment.

Special Information: This course supports the 22 training day POI for AC. The course will be training using a five-day week, using a course length of 4 weeks, 2 days. Soldiers, whose reservations were made after 1 October 2007, are only required to report with documentary evidence of physical profile and SSD1 completion certificate. Soldiers may enroll with a temporary Profile (i.e. shaving and other non-performance related issues). The Profile MUST NOT prevent them from meeting all physical tasks and the physical graduation requirements such as taking and passing the APFT and carrying load bearing equipment during the FTX. *Temporary Profile Exceptions: Soldiers will train within the limits of their profiles. If a Soldier on a Temporary profile cannot complete ALL the events of the APFT or meet all the physical requirements, they will NOT be allowed to enroll in BLC. If a student receives a temporary profile during the course and can complete the course requirements with the temporary profile, the student can graduate and receive a DA Form 1059 indicating course standards were met. This determination resides with the Commandant.*Permanent Profiles: Soldiers possessing permanent profiles 3 or 4 must provide a copy of the DA Form 3349, with signatures from the profiling officer, and the approving authority (a physician). Commanders do not need to sign unless they disagree with the profile findings. P2 profiles require an only doctor's signature. Soldiers possessing permanent profile designators of "3" or "4" who have been before an MMRB, awarded medical limitations, and allowed to retain their occupational classification will be permitted to attend various courses and train within the limitations of their profile.*Pregnant soldiers: - Prior to the course may not attend BLC until medically cleared. - Diagnosed as pregnant while attending BLC may continue, but they must provide written documents from doctor that states they can participate in all course physical requirements. Soldiers medically dismissed for pregnancy after enrollment are eligible to return to the course when medically cleared. Wounded Warrior: Commandants will not deny enrollment or disenrollment of Soldiers based on physical profiles resulting from MMEB or MEB rulings. These soldiers can attend PME and MOS courses. These are soldiers who previously were unable to meet course requirements as a result of physical limitations that have been formally acknowledged by either the wounded warriors program and/or a permanent profile as a result of a MOS/medical retention board or medical evaluation board, and that are properly documented using the military physical profile for physical condition/stamina, upper extremities, lower extremities, hearing/ear, eyes, and psychiatric (PULHES) code. Commandants are authorized to adjust or waive graduation requirements to these soldiers for enrollment and attendance at professional military education courses (PME) and military occupational specialty (MOS) courses due to reclassification.NCOA will deny enrollment to Soldiers failing to meet any one of the above prerequisites. Commandants may not supplement these mandatory enrollment requirements.(REF: AR 40-501, Chap 8; AR 350-1, Chap 3; and TRADOC Reg 350-10, Chap 2, Para 2-6(d); HRC Profile Policy for NCOES, 19 January 2007; and <https://www.hrc.army.mil/site/protect/Active/epncoes/ncopoc.htm>, SECARMY Memorandum Subject: Army Directive 2012-20 (Physical Fitness and Height and Weight Requirements for Professional Military Education, dated 17 September, 2012), and medical evaluation boarded soldiers approved for continued service and related professional military education and military occupational specialty training, reference, AR 350-1, Para 3-9d; AR 600-60, Para 4-17; AR 40-400, Para 5-3b thru 5-3d.DTG XX0800 MAR 09)*Physical Requirements: Soldiers must participate in all BLC physical requirements based upon the limitations of their profiles. **The Basic Leader Course (BLC) is a non-Military Occupational Specialty (MOS) specific course that serves as the foundation of the NCOES. The course will leverage technological and conventional face-to-face teaching and delivery methods. The leadership performance is evaluated throughout the course. Specifically, the two courses used for this training are the Core Pre-Deployment and Specialized Training Materials for Staff Officers. The lesson plans and presentations are not task-based. The lessons in TDC will be used only to capture resources required for training. The Proponent United Nations UN lessons are attached to this POI in step 23 multimedia.8Deployable Exercise Support for Civil Affairs, Peacekeeping, and Humanitarian Operations, Concept of the Game The Deployable Exercise Support system DEXES is a simulation program designed to support bilingual international training exercises in military operations other than war for the US Southern Command. At the heart of DEXES, there is a dynamic mathematical model of society, encompassing economic, social, political, and public health variables. This model generates the societal reactions to actions taken or not taken by the peacekeeping forces from many nations under a single military command. Each force that has its own Area of Operations AO is a separate player in the game. Other players include the military command, the host nation's own government, up to four opposition guerilla forces, forces from neighboring nations and non-governmental organizations e.g. Red Cross, Care International, Doctors without Borders , Distributor Borders, etc. . DEXES are designed to be played by operators on a network of Macintosh computers. The computers are linked on an Ethernet network so that every action or event that occurs on one computer is immediately reflected on all others. Military units, the host nation's government, and non-governmental organizations can perform actions at any time during the game. Each action is chosen from a popup menu by the game's players. If an unanticipated action needs to be performed, it can be created on-the-fly by the player. The list of all anticipated actions and their consequences is prepared during the setup phase of the game in the form of a spreadsheet. Events in the game can be scripted in advance, by means of another spreadsheet which gives the event description, its day and time, and its consequences. Special non-scripted events may also be specified. These are events that are triggered whenever a specific combination of conditions is encountered. Triggered events are described in their own Excel spreadsheet. As the game unfolds, scripted and triggered events occur and operational units take actions in response. Each military, governmental, or non-governmental unit follows a plan that is constructed and maintained by the player who controls the unit. All events and actions have consequences that are expressed in terms of changes in the state variables of the societal model that underlies DEXES. The state variables are graphed in a chart window, which can be displayed or printed at any time. The current list of societal state variables is divided into four categories social, economic, political, and public opinion. There are additional state variables that describe the current state supplies, efficiency, condition, etc. of each unit. DEXES runs on Macintosh computers including all Mac clones or on UNIX computers from Sun or Hewlett-Packard with the Macintosh Application Environment installed. Multi-computer operation requires Ethernet connections. Long-distance operation via the Internet is not yet supported.

BASIC LEADER
 Army

NCO ACADEMY - INFANTRY
 FORT BENNING, GA

Course Description:

MasIID	Course Number / Title	CSec	Dur	LOC	ECL	ECL Code	OPI	TOEFL	EIMET	GRE	Penalty
--------	-----------------------	------	-----	-----	-----	----------	-----	-------	-------	-----	---------

Effective 2015-10-02
 Course Scope:

The Basic Leader Course (BLC) is branch immaterial. The conduct of the course takes place in an NCO Academy non-live-in environment in accordance with the small group instruction process. It consists of minimal classroom dynamics and practical application with an intense field training environment that involves hands-on, performance-oriented training. The course graduates leave equipped with standards-based, performance-oriented, battle-focused training that supports squad level operations. It provides the Army with a leader who can visualize, describe, and execute squad level operations in varied operational environments. It is a leader course that produces a predictive, adaptive, and innovative combat leader capable of leading Soldiers in any situation. The instructional design and methods of delivery consists of face-to-face instruction, learner-centered outcomes, based on today's contemporary operational environment, and used to reinforce all small unit tactics, techniques, and procedures. The course incorporates recent lessons learned, 9 battle drills, 39 warrior tasks with the inclusion of weapons immersion, a 36-hour situational training exercise (STX), and an evaluated Land Navigation Course. The STX centers on competency, battle focused combat scenarios, and troop-leading procedures. Evaluation centers on their ability to demonstrate troop-leading procedures in current threat-based scenarios that will enhance their 360-degree assessment.

Special Information:

This course supports the 22 training day POI for AC. The course will be training using a five-day week, using a course length of 4 weeks, 2 days. Soldiers, whose reservations were made after 1 October 2007, are only required to report with documentary evidence of physical profile and SSD1 completion certificate. Soldiers may enroll with a temporary Profile (i.e. shaving and other non-performance related issues). The Profile MUST NOT prevent them from meeting all physical tasks and the physical graduation requirements such as taking and passing the APFT and carrying load bearing equipment during the FTX. *Temporary Profile Exceptions: Soldiers will train within the limits of their profiles. If a Soldier on a Temporary profile cannot complete ALL the events of the APFT or meet all the physical requirements, they will NOT be allowed to enroll in BLC. If a student receives a temporary profile during the course and can complete the course requirements with the temporary profile, the student can graduate and receive a DA Form 1059 indicating course standards were met. This determination resides with the Commandant. *Permanent Profiles: Soldiers possessing permanent profiles 3 or 4 must provide a copy of the DA Form 3349, with signatures from the profiling officer, and the approving authority (a physician). Commandants do not need to sign unless they disagree with the profile findings. P2 profiles require an only doctor's signature. Soldiers possessing permanent profile designators of "3" or "4" who have been before an MMRB, awarded medical limitations, and allowed to retain their occupational classification will be permitted to attend various courses and train within the limitations of their profile. *Pregnant soldiers: - Prior to the course may not attend BLC until medically cleared. - Diagnosed as pregnant while attending BLC may continue, but they must provide written documents from doctor that states they can participate in all course physical requirements. Soldiers medically dismissed for pregnancy after enrollment are eligible to return to the course when medically cleared. Wounded Warrior: Commandants will not deny enrollment or disenrollment of Soldiers based on physical profiles resulting from MMEB or MEB rulings. These soldiers can attend PME and MOS courses. These are soldiers who previously were unable to meet course requirements as a result of physical limitations that have been formally acknowledged by either the wounded warriors program and/or a permanent profile as a result of a MOS/medical retention board or medical evaluation board, and that are properly documented using the military physical profile for physical condition/stamina, upper extremities, lower extremities, hearing/ear, eyes, and psychiatric (PULHES) code. Commandants are authorized to adjust or waive graduation requirements to these soldiers for enrollment and attendance at professional military education courses (PME) and military occupational specialty (MOS) courses due to reclassification. NCOA will deny enrollment to Soldiers failing to meet any one of the above prerequisites. Commandants may not supplement these mandatory enrollment requirements. (REF: AR 40-501, Chap 8; AR 350-1, Chap 3; and TRADOC Reg 350-10, Chap 2, Para 2-6(d); HRC Profile Policy for NCOES, 19 January 2007; and <https://www.hrc.army.mil/site/protect/Active/epncoes/ncopoc.htm>, SECARMY Memorandum Subject: Army Directive 2012-20 (Physical Fitness and Height and Weight Requirements for Professional Military Education, dated 17 September, 2012), and medical evaluation boarded soldiers approved for continued service and related professional military education and military occupational specialty training, reference, AR 350-1, Para 3-9d; AR 600-60, Para 4-17; AR 40-400, Para 5-3b thru 5-3d. The course will leverage technological and conventional face-to-face teaching and delivery methods. The leadership performance is evaluated throughout the course. Course is taught at multiple locations. Institutional Training travel guidance may be viewed at <https://www.g357extranet.army.pentagon.mil/ako/ittg>

1 Family members dependents accepted with coordination with SATFA and IMSO.

Students must make sure they have adequate medical insurance for themselves and their dependents. Medical care in the U.S. is very expensive.

Fort Rucker is unable to provide adequate life-cycle support for IMS dependents. The SCO can authorize dependents on an ITO only after obtaining IMSO concurrence and this is to be done solely on a case-by-case basis. IMS who elect to bring unauthorized dependents will do so at their own expense and these dependents must maintain self-sufficiency for the duration of their sponsor's U. S. Army sponsored training in CONUS. Additionally, these unauthorized dependents will not receive a U. S. Uniformed Services Identification and Privilege Card. If the IMSO authorizes the SCO to include IMS dependents on the ITO, then DSCA Policy Memorandum 10-39, 23 June 2010, the U. S. Army Supplement to DSCA Policy Memorandum 10-39, 2 September 2010, and the DSCA Policy Memorandum 11-32, 15 Aug 11, prevail. Prior to SCO including dependents on ITO line 12 a-b, they must first validate that the IMS has purchased proper, and sufficient healthcare coverage insurance if applicable. IMS whose authorized dependents arrive without proper healthcare coverage will not be issued a U.S. Common Access Card CAC. Additionally, these dependents will have a maximum of 10 working days in which to secure proper and sufficient healthcare coverage or obtain country indemnification via an ITO agreement. A copy of the healthcare coverage insurance policy is to be provided to the IMSO for review and approval. When it is confirmed that the policy includes proper and sufficient healthcare coverage, then the IMSO may proceed with issuing the U.S. Uniformed Services Identification and Privilege Card to the authorized dependents.

The SCO is required to provide the IMS dependent's healthcare insurance policy in English to the IMSO at the first CONUS training location not later than 16 days prior to IMS report date. The policy may be mailed to the IMSO, but must be received by the IMSO not later than 16 days prior to the report date to the first CONUS training location

Course Prerequisite Text:

1 Family members dependents accepted with coordination with SATFA and IMSO.

Students must make sure they have adequate medical insurance for themselves and their dependents. Medical care in the U.S. is very expensive.

Fort Rucker is unable to provide adequate life-cycle support for IMS dependents. The SCO can authorize dependents on an ITO only after obtaining IMSO concurrence and this is to be done solely on a case-by-case basis. IMS who elect to bring unauthorized dependents will do so at their own expense and these dependents must maintain self-sufficiency for the duration of their sponsor's U. S. Army sponsored training in CONUS. Additionally, these unauthorized dependents will not receive a U. S. Uniformed Services Identification and Privilege Card. If the IMSO authorizes the SCO to include IMS dependents on the ITO, then DSCA Policy Memorandum 10-39, 23 June 2010, the U. S. Army Supplement to DSCA Policy Memorandum 10-39, 2 September 2010, and the DSCA Policy Memorandum 11-32, 15 Aug 11, prevail. Prior to SCO including dependents on ITO line 12 a-b , they must first validate that the IMS has purchased proper, and sufficient healthcare coverage insurance if applicable . IMS whose authorized dependents arrive without proper healthcare coverage will not be issued a U.S. Common Access Card CAC . Additionally, these dependents will have a maximum of 10 working days in which to secure proper and sufficient healthcare coverage or obtain country indemnification via an ITO agreement. A copy of the healthcare coverage insurance policy is to be provided to the IMSO for review and approval. When it is confirmed that the policy includes proper and sufficient healthcare coverage, then the IMSO may proceed with issuing the U.S. Uniformed Services Identification and Privilege Card to the authorized dependents.

The SCO is required to provide the IMS dependent's healthcare insurance policy in English to the IMSO at the first CONUS training location not later than 16 days prior to IMS report date. The policy may be mailed to the IMSO, but must be received by the IMSO not later than 16 days prior to the report date to the first CONUS training location

Happy Cab 2334-390-0800

AAA Cab 334-393-0499 or 334-794-6359

13 Early arrivals are discouraged unless ITO is amended to reflect the new report date. IMS are unable to get an ID card prior to the report date on their ITO.

14 IMSO cell phone number is 334 714-1896 for non-life threatening emergencies only.

15 Many courses are filled with curriculum and training up to the day of graduation. Some flying courses may be extended due to weather and other things beyond USAACE's control. Therefore, Country SCO should not purchase round trip tickets for the IMS with a specified end date. End date should be left open to avoid Country having to pay penalties in case training is delayed. We will not schedule IMS to leave on holidays or weekends unless it is an emergency. IMSO will make every effort to accommodate and assist students, but staff overtime resources required for student airport transportation are limited. Worst case, taxi service is available and IMSO can assist in coordination.

16 IMSO realizes that many of our IMS are accustomed to having domestic help in their homes. They need to be advised that domestic help in the US is very expensive. They should come here with basic laundry skills, cooking skills without setting off fire alarm, and cleaning skills including cleaning the kitchen, stove, refrigerator, and washing dishes.

17 Rental cars are recommended for Advanced Aircraft Courses AQC, IPC, MTP, FSXXI IERW Track Courses, Aviation Maintenance Officer Course, Basic Officer Leadership Course, and Aviation Captain's Career Course. Fort Rucker does not provide transportation to these courses flight line or academics. All students attending Spanish Courses are provided transportation to and from the Flight Line. Students attending FSXXI IERW are required to ride the bus due to limited parking space at the Flight Line. However, they do require transportation to and from the pickup and drop off points for safety reasons. The pickup schedule for morning flight line training is around 0430. Drop off schedule for evening flight line training is after 0100.

18 If IMS arrive after hours or on the weekend, they need to check into the hotel. Emergency contact number is 334-714-1896 IMSO cell phone. They will need to report to IMSO at 0800 on the first working day after their arrival. They will need to bring the following items with them when they report

1 Family members dependents accepted with coordination with SATFA and IMSO.

Students must make sure they have adequate medical insurance for themselves and their dependents. Medical care in the U.S. is very expensive.

Fort Rucker is unable to provide adequate life-cycle support for IMS dependents. The SCO can authorize dependents on an ITO only after obtaining IMSO concurrence and this is to be done solely on a case-by-case basis. IMS who elect to bring unauthorized dependents will do so at their own expense and these dependents must maintain self-sufficiency for the duration of their sponsor's U. S. Army sponsored training in CONUS. Additionally, these unauthorized dependents will not receive a U. S. Uniformed Services Identification and Privilege Card. If the IMSO authorizes the SCO to include IMS dependents on the ITO, then DSCA Policy Memorandum 10-39, 23 June 2010, the U. S. Army Supplement to DSCA Policy Memorandum 10-39, 2 September 2010, and the DSCA Policy Memorandum 11-32, 15 Aug 11, prevail. Prior to SCO including dependents on ITO line 12 a-b, they must first validate that the IMS has purchased proper, and sufficient healthcare coverage insurance if applicable. IMS whose authorized dependents arrive without proper healthcare coverage will not be issued a U.S. Common Access Card CAC. Additionally, these dependents will have a maximum of 10 working days in which to secure proper and sufficient healthcare coverage or obtain country indemnification via an ITO agreement. A copy of the healthcare coverage insurance policy is to be provided to the IMSO for review and approval. When it is confirmed that the policy includes proper and sufficient healthcare coverage, then the IMSO may proceed with issuing the U.S. Uniformed Services Identification and Privilege Card to the authorized dependents.

The SCO is required to provide the IMS dependent's healthcare insurance policy in English to the IMSO at the first CONUS training location not later than 16 days prior to IMS report date. The policy may be mailed to the IMSO, but must be received by the IMSO not later than 16 days prior to the report date to the first CONUS training location

13 Early arrivals are discouraged unless ITO is amended to reflect the new report date. IMS are unable to get an ID card prior to the report date on their ITO.

14 IMSO cell phone number is 334 714-1896 for non-life threatening emergencies only .

15 Many courses are filled with curriculum and training up to the day of graduation. Some flying courses may be extended due to weather and other things beyond USAACE s control. Therefore, Country SCO should not purchase round trip tickets for the IMS with a specified end date. End date should be left open to avoid Country having to pay penalties in case training is delayed. We will not schedule IMS to leave on holidays or weekends unless it is an emergency. IMSO will make every effort to accommodate and assist students, but staff overtime resources required for student airport transportation are limited. Worst case, taxi service is available and IMSO can assist in coordination.

16 IMSO realizes that many of our IMS are accustomed to having domestic help in their homes. They need to be advised that domestic help in the US is very expensive. They should come here with basic laundry skills, cooking skills without setting off fire alarm , and cleaning skills including cleaning the kitchen, stove, refrigerator, and washing dishes .

17 Rental cars are recommended for Advanced Aircraft Courses AQC, IPC, MTP , FSXXI IERW Track Courses, Aviation Maintenance Officer Course, Basic Officer Leadership Course, and Aviation Captain s Career Course. Fort Rucker does not provide transportation to these courses flight line or academics . All students attending Spanish Courses are provided transportation to and from the Flight Line. Students attending FSXXI IERW are required to ride the bus due to limited parking space at the Flight Line. However, they do require transportation to and from the pickup and drop off points for safety reasons. The pickup schedule for morning flight line training is around 0430. Drop off schedule for evening flight line training is after 0100.

18 If IMS arrive after hours or on the weekend, they need to check into the hotel. Emergency contact number is 334-714-1896 IMSO cell phone . They will need to report to IMSO at 0800 on the first working day after their arrival. They will need to bring the following items with them when they report

Passport VISA for IMS and accompanied dependents

Medical records

Flight records

Proof of medical coverage for any accompanied dependents
