COL Patrick Lemyre

Evaluation of COL Patrick Lemyre

COL Patrick Lemyre was an International Fellow from Canada in the 46th class of the Israel National Defense College (2018-2019). He has completed all obligations with honors and attained the title: Israel National Defense College Graduate. Additionally COL Patrick Lemyre concluded all of his academic requirements and received an M.A. in Political Science – National Security from Haifa University. He wrote his final paper on the subject: "Canadian Immigration policies and National Security: Perceived Liberalism hiding pragmatism".

COL Patrick Lemyre has been a valuable member of the class and has gained the respect and appreciation of staff and students alike. His unique perspective and his rich experience enriched our discussions and revealed his seriousness and wisdom, always bringing new and unique points of view to the table, especially in issues regarding the comparison between Israel's national Security challenges and those of Canada.

I thanked COL Patrick Lemyre for his excellent contribution to the class. I wished him and his family all the best. I have no doubt he will continue to succeed in his future assignments and I am convinced that the added values and perspectives that he gained in Israel and at the INDC, will contribute to the National Security of Canada and his future career.

Sincerely,
