Indian Armed Forces – Chief of Army

Defense Attaché of India in Israel

BG Raju Baijal

Evaluation of BG Raju Baijal

BG Raju Baijal was an International Fellow in the 46th Class of the Israel National Defense College (2018-2019). He has completed all obligations and attained the title: Israel National Defense College Graduate. Additionally, BG Raju Baijal concluded all academic requirements and received an M.A. in Political Science – National Security, from Haifa University. The subject of his final paper was: "The Rohingya Crisis in Myanmar and its Impact on India's National Security".

BG Raju Baijal was awarded the title of "Student of Excellence" for his achievements doing the course of the year.

BG Raju Baijal has proved to have been a valuable member of his class, characterized by his heightened curiosity and wisdom, and constant readiness to expand his knowledge and perspectives. He has gained the respect and appreciation of both his fellow students and the staff. His rich experience and intellectual capabilities offered alternative perspectives and insights which greatly enriched our class discussions, particularly with regard to the comparison between the challenges of Israel's and India's national security.

FOUO

As the Commandant of the IDF Colleges, I feel we were privileged to have had such a student among us this year. His performance has served as a great credit not only to himself, but to that of the military and the country he represents.

I thanked BG Raju Baijal for his participation in the INDC program and wished him and his family all the best. I have no doubt that he will continue to succeed in his future assignments and I trust that the added values and perspectives that he gained at the INDC will contribute to the National Security of India and his future career.

Sincerely,
